

Functional & Light-Weight Hand Labelling System

PB-1

Its small sized label makes it exceptionally suitable for labelling small items in gift shops. Small label size also gives cost performance per label.

Small and Light-Weight

- This light weight hand labeller benefits operators who can now use it daily and for longer periods of time

Smallest Label In The Market

- Perfect for labelling small items, for example, in a gift shop

Clean And Crisp Index Band

- Stopper feature ensures print band stays in place and also minimizes the staining of print band

Prints 5, 6 & 7 Characters

- This flexibility means more information can be shown

Clear And Vivid Printout

- Enhanced readability for readers

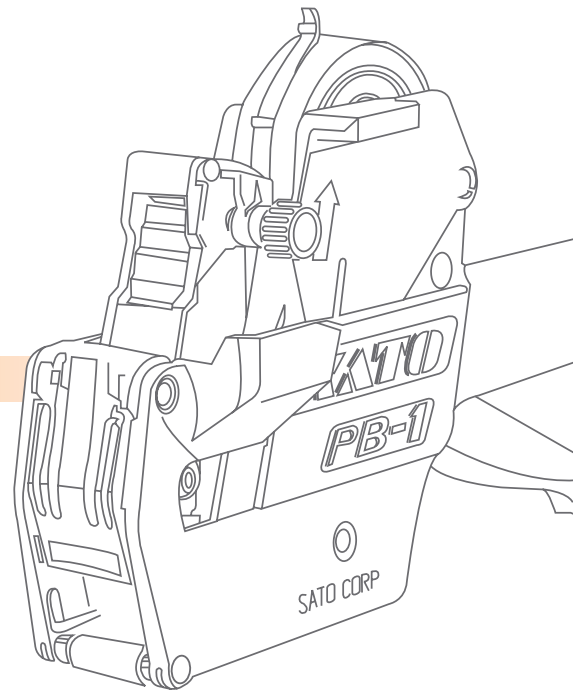

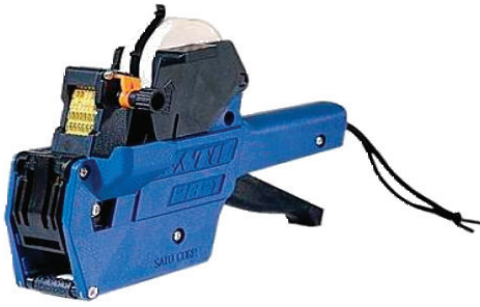

With SATO's PB-1 hand labeller, product labelling becomes so much easier! Compact, light-weight and with its unique label size, PB-1 allows you to print up to a maximum of 7 alphanumeric characters in 1 line.

Commonly used for "price marking" applications, product identification and control purposes, PB-1 has the capability to print on small label size and is suitable for labelling small items.
